Academy for

Spiritual Formation

the five day academy for spiritual formation is:

- + A retreat for lay and clergy persons of all denominations who hunger for spiritual growth.
- + A time for celebrating holistic spirituality renewing body, mind, and soul.
- + A time for learning new ways to deepen our relationship with God and to live as faithful servants of God's love in the world.
- + A time when morning and night prayers, evening eucharist and silence set the rhythm for the week.
- + A time to be informed, nurtured, sustained and empowered by God's Spirit for Christian Discipleship in the world.

metaphors that matter

Merilyn McEntyre has taught at Princeton University, the College of New Jersey, Mills College, and Westmont College and been a regular guest speaker at the UCSF/JUC Berkeley Joint Medical Program. She has written a number of books, leads retreats for churches, women's groups, writers, academic staff, and health professionals. She has written for Weavings, The Christian Century, Sojourners, Prism, Academic Medicine, Lectionary Homiletics, College Literature, and other periodicals. Ms. McEntyre is a vegetarian, walks in the woods whenever possible, wants to help heal the planet, doesn't think we can do that without imagination, compassion, humility, and a massive paradigm shift hebrew spirituality and the path to shalom

Rabbi David M. Horowitz is the rabbi emeritus of Temple Israel in Akron, Ohio. Rabbi Horowitz has served, among others, as a member of Jewish Community Board of Akron, of the Community Relations Council (Chair), the National Committee on HIV/AIDS for the Union For Reform Congregations, the Central Conference of American Rabbis, and the Akron Area Interfaith Council (both as treasurer and president). Rabbi Horowitz lectures widely on issues dealing with gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender concerns, the challenge of the radical right, as well as a variety of Judaic subjects, to academic institutions, religious institutions, and corporations throughout the United States and in foreign lands. He is frequently a presenter at the Academy for Spiritual Formation sponsored by the Upper Room.
